

In March/April 2017, Lak Saviya Foundation Australia (LSF) shipped a 40 foot container from Sydney to Sri Lanka with following items:

- 38 electrically controlled hospital beds with mattresses, most in operating condition.
- 2 Aluminium crutches, 6 bed heads, 2 bed panels.

The beds, bed heads and bed panels were donated, free of charge, by the Anglican Retirement Village, Castle Hill, New South Wales, Australia. The crutches were donated by two well-wishers in Sydney. The shipment was cleared, transported, and distributed to the hospitals by friends of Lak Saviya Foundation in Sri Lanka, Senaka Rodrigo and Donald Gaminithilake.

The 38 beds were distributed to following hospitals:

10 beds	Nikaweratiya Base Hospital, North Western Province.
10 beds	Muthur Base Hospital, Eastern Province
10 beds	Peradeniya Teaching Hospital, Central Province.
3 beds	Kilinochchi Base Hospital, Northern Province.
3 beds	Kuliapitiya Base Hospital, North Western Province.
2 beds	Makandura Hospital, North Western Province.
