

In December 2017, Lak Saviya Foundation Australia shipped a 40ft container to Sri Lanka with:

- 22 used hospital beds donated by the Hawkesbury Hospital, NSW,
- A consignment of used medical equipment donated by the Norwest Private Hospital, NSW, and,
- Used toys and books in good condition, donated by a well-wisher.

All the beds and equipment were tested in Sydney prior to shipping by qualified personnel, and confirmed to be in working condition.

The shipment was cleared, transported, and distributed to needy hospitals and other institutions by Lak Saviya Foundation's members in Sri Lanka.

The beds and equipment were distributed to following hospitals and institutions:

Hospital / Institution	Total	Kuliyapitiya Base Hospital	Kandy General Hospital	Diyathalawa Base Hospital	Diyathalawa Army Hospital	Maduru Oya Hospital	Seela Suwa Arana	Holy Angels Centre

Cost:

Transport costs (Windsor to Castle Hill to Blacktown)	$2,273.00
Shipping – one 40ft container	$3,775.00
Clearing and transport in Sri Lanka (Rs 200,000)	$1,887.00
Total Cost	$7,935.00

Note: The excessive transport cost was due to double handling caused by delays in getting approvals from Ministry of Health, Sri Lanka.

Acknowledgements:

Lak Saviya Foundation sincerely acknowledges following organisations and individuals for their untiring efforts to make this project a success:

1. Hawkesbury Hospital, Windsor for donating the beds.
2. Norwest Private Hospital, Bella Vista for donating the medical equipment.
3. Friends of Lak Saviya in Sydney and Canberra who helped to test, pack, store and transport the beds and equipment.
4. Senaka Rodrigo, Donald Gaminithilake for clearing and distribution in Sri Lanka, and a contribution of Rs75,000.
5. Don Jayasinghe for assistance with customs clearing.
6. Hemantha Perera of Trico International and Upali of Pacific Container Line Agency Colombo (Pvt) Ltd for assistance with shipping and clearing.
